

acted and led the leaders. She developed a plan for low income residents in Fort Collins which resulted in the construction of the Mission homeless shelter in 1989.

Again acting with foresight, Sister Mary Alice knew the Mission shelter was only temporary, and shelter residents would eventually need a more permanent place. CARE wanted to build new homes for low-income residents because renovation of existing homes in Fort Collins was not the optimum solution. Sister Mary Alice shepherded CARE's construction of the 40-unit Greenbriar complex in 1995, the first of three new housing units for low-income families.

Now in 1999, after almost two decades of service to low-income families in Fort Collins, CARE, under Sister Mary Alice's direction, has built three affordable housing complexes with 116 new housing units in Fort Collins and plans are in the making for a fourth project. When Sister Mary Alice steps down in September, I am proud to say she will still be involved with affordable housing in Fort Collins by assuming an advisory role in CARE's board of directors.

Mr. Speaker, today I am honored to pay tribute to a woman who exemplifies community service, service to humanity and faith in God. Sister Mary Alice Murphy is the person who identified the need for affordable housing in Fort Collins and followed through by shepherding the construction of it. We need more citizens like Sister Mary Alice who see problems and fixes them.

CONGRATULATING THE GENOA-
HUGO HIGH SCHOOL BOYS BAS-KETBALL TEAM

HON. BOB SCHAFFER

OF COLORADO

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Tuesday, March 2, 1999

Mr. SCHAFFER. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to honor the Genoa-Hugo High School boys basketball team on their Class A District 7 Championship.

The Genoa-Hugo players, led by Coach Casey Moats, will now advance to the next level in the state basketball playoffs and their shot at the Colorado State A Championship.

All teams, no matter what the sport, continually strive to find that special and unique combination of teamwork, leadership, skill and effort which unlocks the door to success. Under careful tutelage, hard-working teams not only win games, but also build the confidence necessary to win championships. Clearly, these dedicated hoopsters have found this winning formula and attained the next rung of sporting success.

Greater challenges remain, however, and I wish the Genoa-Hugo High School boys basketball team the best of luck in the Colorado A State Championship. No matter what the outcome of the next game, this team has proven it has the heart of a champion, and can take pride in the District 7 Championship.
